Hello Derek,

Please find attached my review of this manuscript. Let me know if I need to change anything in it, or if there is a different format that I need to use.

Thank you,

Ross Edelstein

Attached is the JVR manuscript for review. Can you please get this back to me by November 8th?

As you engage in this review, if you have a critique then please provide detailed information about that critique and, when possible, ways the author can address it. Our job is to review and provide support to the author/editor to improve the article. Please lay out your feedback on a Word document with the headers of the document. This will focus the authors and your review.

When you're done, go ahead and send the Word document and the JVR review document mentioned back to me. I will do the final submission.

Thanks
Derek
